

Universität
Bremen

TECHNISCHE
UNIVERSITÄT
DRESDEN

UNIVERSITY OF WARSAW

BTWSD#4: The Power(s) of Language Negotiating Voice and Recognition

Conference Programme (final)

Venue: Stockholm University, Frescati, House D & E

Conference Day 1: June 17

D7

9:00	Welcome and introduction (Charlotta Seiler Brylla, Hanna Acke, Silvia Bonacchi, Carsten Junker, Ingo H. Warnke)
9:30	Simone Knewitz (Bonn, Germany): “Critical Race Theory”: (White) Identity Politics and Political Self Positioning in the US Culture Wars.
10:00	Chris Katzenberg (Bochum, Germany): Still “Nice White Parents”? White Self-Descriptions in Progressive Discourse on Racial Inequality in New York Public Education Moderation: Charlotta Seiler Brylla
10:30	Coffee break
11:00	(D7) Ulrika Björk (Södertörn, Sweden): Survival and translability: On the authenticity of the original voice (E413) Nika Bogdanowska & Ewa Bogdanowska-Jakubowska (Katowice, Poland): Marginalization, depersonalization and exclusionary rhetoric in the discursive construction of national identity

11:30	(D7) Nora Haddada (Berlin, Germany): Canon-Anxiety in Post-Migrant Literature: The imagined community in Mithu Sanyal's Identitti (E413) Ondrej Pekacek (Prague, Czech Republic) & Irene Elmerot (Stockholm, Sweden): Everybody speaks, but who is being heard? Media discourse on migration in the Czech Republic and its main protagonist
12:00	(D7) Nina Simon (Leipzig, Germany): "The Hill We Climb" - On the Potential of Cultural Studies Reflections on the Question of Gorman's Poem's Translators for German as a Foreign Language (E413) Adam Konopka (Warsaw, Poland): Power inequalities in the process of decommunisation. A case of Jan Piechocki's street in Bydgoszcz Moderation: Carsten Junker (D7) & Christophe Premat (E413)
12:30	Lunch break
D7
13:30	Johnny Unger & Jessica Aiston (Lancaster, UK): "Trans rights? Yes. Toxic in-your-face activism? No": Polarisation and nuance in digitally mediated debates Moderation: Ingo H. Warnke
14:00	Panel discussion with Kajsa Ekis Ekman & Lucas Gottzén Moderation: Henning Årman
15:00	Coffee break
15:30	(D7) Christophe Premat (Stockholm, Sweden): Gender and power in the 2022 presidential campaign in France

	(E413) Massimiliano Demata (Turin, Italy): Science and (de-) legitimization in the age of conspiracy theories: the case of Stand Up X
16:00	(D7) Hagen Steinhauer (Bremen, Germany): The Rise of Authoritarian Identity Politics in France
	(E413) Anastasiya Astapova (Tartu, Estonia): COVID-19 Conspiracy Theories among Russophone Population in Estonia
	Moderation: Hanna Acke (D7) & Silvia Bonacchi (E413)
16:30	Short break
D7
16.45	Marie Veniard (Paris, France): Language ethics in practice. A case study of activists campaigning for migrants's and asylum-seekers's rights in France
17.15	Herbert Rostand Ngouo (Maroua, Cameroon): Emancipatory and reactive discourse in diplomatic communication: the case of Malian PM and French President Macron (video recording)
	Moderation: Hanna Acke
18:00	Reception (Faculty Club)

Conference Day 2: June 18

D7
9:00	Sven Bloching (Heidelberg, Germany): The Power of Words? Politics, Morality and Economics of Word Choice
9.30	Simon Meier-Vieracker (Dresden, Germany): Turning recognition into imposition. Standardlanguage ideologies in discourses about cultural identity

10:00	Giulia Pelillo-Hestermeyer (Heidelberg, Germany): Race in Public Space: Black Lives Matter and the Transcultural Negotiation of Identities and Heritages Moderation: Ingo H. Warnke
10:30	Coffee break
11:00	(D7) Jonas Trochemowitz (Bremen, Germany): Performative Activism and the Metapositional Conceptualization of Discursive Practice (E413) Camilla Reisler Cavalcanti & Fabio Malini (Espírito Santo, Brazil): Greta Thunberg and the September 2021 Global Climate Strike: a multimodal discourse analysis of activist discourse on Twitter
11:30	(D7) Louise Therkildsen (Uppsala, Sweden): The Destabilisation of the Meaning of Identity Politics (E413): Hanna Acke, Larissa Bothe & Anne Rosar (Åbo, Finland; Berlin, Germany; Mainz, Germany): The collaborative project SPRACHE MACHT DEMOKRATIE
12:00	(D7): Christine Ivanov (Hannover, Germany): "Gender-crazed feminists" - Gender-fair language under a crossfire from anti-feminism and queer-feminist challenges. (E413) Ahngeli Shivam (Mainz, Germany): „Pan-Ethnicity and the Model Minority“ Moderation: Silvia Bonacchi (D7) & Ann-Judith Rabenschlag (E3413)
12:30	Lunch break
13:30	(D7) Natalie Rauscher (Heidelberg, Germany): The struggle to do 'the most good' – 21st century American philanthropists and their framing of the diversity, equality and inclusion debate (in global health initiatives) (E413) Ann-Judith Rabenschlag (Stockholm, Sweden): Teaching on the Discriminated Other: Theoretical reflections on the power of language

14:00	(D7) Jöran Landschoff (Heidelberg, Germany): Who constructs? Discourse Linguistics and the Production of Meaning in Debates on Identity Politics (E413) Anna Heuman (Örebro, Sweden): Claiming and rejecting linguistic legitimacy: Exploring a metalinguistic debate on standard language, legitimacy and dyslexia
14:30	(D7) Sagar Ved Singh & Nicholas Lakra (Rajasthan, India): Contesting for others' rights? Immigrants, citizenship and tv panel debates in India (E413): Corinna Reipen (Düsseldorf, Germany): „cause telling your own story is the secret to survival“: Marginalization and the Struggle for Voice of British People with Ugandan Roots in George The Poets's Podcast „Have you heard George's Podcast?“ Moderation: Carsten Junker (D7) & Irene Elmerot (E413)
15:00	Coffee break
15:30	World café
16:30	Concluding discussion
17:30	End of conference